

THE WEARHOUSE

MORE THAN A THRIFT STORE

Fact Sheet

WHAT WE DO

At Camino, The WearHouse is more than a thrift store—it's a mission-driven initiative that combines affordable fashion, home essentials, and community impact. Every purchase and donation directly supports Camino's programs and services, so shoppers not only find stylish, budget-friendly items but also contribute to a greater cause. Whether refreshing a wardrobe or furnishing a home, shopping at The WearHouse is an experience that transforms lives.

IN 2024 THE WEARHOUSE WOVE A LASTING IMPACT:

- Processed $13,506 in transactions
- Distributed $7,262 worth of clothing donations to over 600 individuals, including families facing financial hardship
- Logged 116 volunteer hours, contributing an estimated $3,885 in labor value to support operations
- Disaster relief response: provided essential clothing, home goods, and furnishings to families affected by Hurricane Helene in Western North Carolina

CONTINUING THE MISSION

Moving forward, The WearHouse remains committed to expanding its reach by:

- Providing even more affordable, high-quality items to families in need.
- Growing our volunteer programs to strengthen community involvement
- Enhancing donation drives to support local and regional relief efforts

At The WearHouse, every item carries a story of generosity, resilience, and transformation. Together, we're building a stronger community, one purchase and donation at a time
